

MAS ETH DFAB SCHOLARSHIP OF EXCELLENCE

Master of Advanced Studies ETH in Architecture and Digital Fabrication

About

The MAS ETH DFAB Scholarship of Excellence aim is to support students which show exceptional potential but who are not able to apply for financial reasons.

Context

The Master of Advanced Studies ETH in Architecture and Digital Fabrication (MAS ETH DFAB) is a one-year full time programme positioned within a vibrant multidisciplinary research environment. Through an interdisciplinary education, graduates acquire computational, fabrication and intellectual skills to contribute to state-of-the-art-topics of digital culture in architecture.

The scholarship

The scholarship will be awarded to a maximum of three students per year. The scholarship award covers partial or full tuition costs, depending on the number of beneficiaries. The MAS ETH DFAB Scholarship Committee reserves the right to waive these awards should there be no eligible candidates.

Requirements

We are looking to support talents ready to tackle the future challenges in architecture. The candidates must show:

- Excellence in their academic or professional experience as it pertains to topics related to digital design and fabrication in architecture
- Prove financial need for tuition support according as explained in the scholarship application document
- Prove that the candidate can cover costs for all other expenses required for their study at the ETH Zurich
- The beneficiary must study the year of their application to the scholarship. Deferrals will not be accepted. The beneficiary would have to re-apply for the following year.
